Russians in the City (RIC™) is a private and by invitation-only members' club established in 2002 for Russian-speaking professionals based in global financial centres. We operate in London, Moscow, Monaco and Switzerland. RIC members have worked in London, New York, Moscow and the EU. RIC™ members work in the private sector, predominantly in the financial services industry, or are members of an established profession, or own businesses. RIC™ provides focused networking for RIC™ members and increases awareness of CIS related business activities. RIC™ is the Russian-speaking professional community interacting face-to-face.

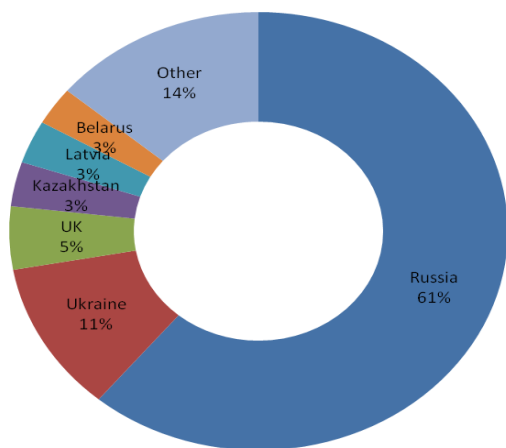

As of October 2014 there are 2,000 RIC™ members. RIC™ membership has a monthly 5% growth rate.

RIC™ offers Individual Membership, Corporate Membership and Corporate Membership for Executive Search
